IV. Participation Rules:

Each club (team) may register 1 to 3 teams, with one chief leader, 1–2 coaches per team, and 12 athletes per team (no restriction on gender, age, or group);

Each club (team) may recommend 1–2 martial arts referees holding the Jingwu A-level referee certificate issued by the World Jingwu Federation. Invitations are subject to review and approval by the World Jingwu Federation Secretariat.

V. Competition Rules:

Nature of competition: The competition includes individual and group events; no team overall scoring is set.

Rules: The competition adopts the "Jingwu International Wushu Competition Rules" and the "Traditional Wushu Routine Competition Rules (2024 Edition)" approved by the Chinese Wushu Association.

Group events: Teams consist of 6 to 12 people, with no restrictions on form, content, or music. Group events focus on martial arts techniques to highlight the style of Wushu.

VI. Time Limits for Completing Routines:

Traditional martial arts solo events: routine completion time must not exceed 2 minutes.

Taiji routines must not exceed 4 minutes; the chief judge will sound a whistle at 3 minutes as a reminder.

Group events: routine completion time must not exceed 4 minutes.

Penalties for exceeding time: For every 1 to 5 seconds over the limit, 0.1 points will be deducted, and so on.

VII. Uniforms and Weapons:

Uniforms: Participants in Jingwu traditional events must wear Jingwu traditional style uniforms (with chain buttons) — color, fabric, and sleeve length are not restricted — and soft-soled shoes.

Weapons: Participants in Jingwu traditional events must use hard weapons.

Uniforms and weapons must be prepared by the participants themselves.

VIII. Awards:

Individual events: Awards (1st, 2nd, 3rd place, and excellence awards) will be given according to event, age, gender, and routine (based on routine name; if more than three participants perform the same routine, a separate group may be formed; groups with fewer than three participants may be merged). Medals and certificates will be awarded to the top three; certificates will be given for excellence awards.

Group events: Awards (1st, 2nd, 3rd place) will be given based on the number of participating teams; winning teams will receive trophies, and individuals will receive medals and certificates.

Performance events: Awards (1st, 2nd, 3rd place) will be given based on the number of participating teams; winning teams will receive trophies, and individuals will receive medals and certificates.

IX. The unaccomplished matters shall be followed by further notice.
